~Vicar's Message~

Dear Parishioners,

Warmest greetings in the precious name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Let's thank God for the joyous month of July and welcome August. We had a beautiful time at the Family Conference in Arizona, and the Sunday School Conference at St. Johns University. I praise and thank God for making our VBS a blessed one and I pray that let this VBS be an inspiration for our kids to live as Jesus' witness and God will help our children to stand firm on the rock that is Christ in a world that can slip and fall. I appreciate teachers volunteers conveners and all who worked hard behind our VBS. I appreciate your participation in in-person meetings and opening the door for fellowship gatherings. I request regular participation for the same.

God willing we will have our parish picnic on the 17th of this month and hoping that you all will attend. Our Church reflects the theme of 'reformation' this month. May God help us to remain firm in the principles of reformation and maintain its good tradition and legacy. August 1-15 the church observes as fifteen days lent, meditating the life of Virgin Mary. May Lord help us to submit ourselves as Mary submitted herself before the Lord.

The first Sunday we observe as Mission Sunday, we must have a clear sense of the mission God has given us and be dedicated. Second Sunday we meditate on Freedom in Jesus Christ: It's reminds us to self-control and be submissive to Jesus's teachings. Third Sunday we meditative upon Reformation based on values of the Kingdom of God. There must be reformation in our personal life, social life, and spiritual life at all times in a way that is based on values of Kingdom of God.

Vicar's Message (contd)

Theological education for Faith nourishment, it is essential that deep study of Word of God for proper faith nourishment. As we celebrate this 15th as independence day of India, let's thank God for the veterans and pioneers of our homeland. Our Parish Retreat is scheduled for September 20th, 21st and 22nd, Rev. Dr. K. Jameson will be main speaker and everyone is reminded to make necessary arrangements needed to attend.

May the Almighty shower His mercy and grace in our life.

With Prayers

Rev. John Philip

The First ever Holy Communion Service in Malayalam was celebrated on August 31st, 1837 by Abraham Malpan at Maramon Mar Thoma Church. The Holy Communion was celebrated in Syriac until then.

Youth Chaplain's Message

In the Name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit - One True God. Amen

Dearly Beloved,

In Luke 10:1-12, we encounter a profound portrayal of Christian mission as both a participatory and defenseless activity. Fundamentally, Christian mission entails participation in the divine mission aimed at realizing the Kingdom of God. The objective is to disentangle individuals from all forms of oppression, reflecting the redemptive work of God in Jesus Christ. In this passage, Jesus dispatches disciples to prepare the way for Him, offering a new strategic framework for mission.

Firstly, mission is portrayed as a participatory endeavor. Jesus commissions seventy disciples in addition to the already selected twelve. Scholars often highlight that the number seventy holds significant weight in Jewish tradition, symbolizing completeness or the representation of all nations. In verse 1, Jesus sends these seventy individuals in pairs, underscoring the importance of mutual support and collaborative mission work. This mission is inherently communal, requiring the collective effort of all participants without discrimination. The text underscores that there is no exclusion based on gender, caste, or other social divisions. Verse 2 emphasizes that "the harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few," suggesting that the success of the mission relies on the cooperation and dedicated effort of the disciples.

Secondly, the mission is characterized by a nearly defenseless spirit. In verse 3, Jesus states, "I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves." This metaphor illustrates a form of discipleship that is vulnerable and sent into potentially life-threatening and hostile environments. The wolf symbolizes entities that seek to undermine and challenge the faith of the disciples, representing a culture of violence and aggression. In contrast, the lamb symbolizes a counter-culture that eschews defensive tactics. The lamb epitomizes a vulnerable missionary community committed to proclaiming liberation and enlightenment, even in the face of opposition. This requires immense courage and faith in God, inspiring us to confront challenges with the same spirit, knowing the great Shepherd is always with us.

Regional Talent Festival Saturday, September 28, 2024, 8:00am–5:00pm

Venue: Epiphany Mar Thoma Church, 103-10 104th St, Ozone Park, NY 11417

Conveners: Suja Thannickal @ 845-300-5814, and Mrs. Soni Verghese @ 917-405-2266

Youth Chaplain’s Message (Contd)

As we reflect on this passage, we must consider: Are we engaging in God's mission activity with the vulnerability of lambs among wolves? Are we prepared to undertake a mission that necessitates reliance on divine protection and guidance? Let us remember that we are not alone in this mission. We have the Almighty's protection and guidance, which should reassure us and give us the strength to commit to a mission that is both participatory and defenseless. God willing, in a couple of months, we will again embark on mission outreach projects with the Northeast Regional Youth Fellowship. I hope that all young adults, teens, and children will be able to attend and participate. By adopting the mission strategy delineated by Jesus, we can collaborate without discrimination and confront opposition with the courage and faith of a lamb among wolves.

Once again, I remind all that the Youth Chaplain’s Parsonage is a place of warmth and hospitality, open to all Youth Fellowship (YF) and Young Family Fellowship (YFF). Whether your YF or YFF needs a listening ear, a moment of prayer, or just a friendly chat over coffee, please feel free to visit anytime. I believe in the importance of our responsible Christian fellowship and being there especially for all of our youths. Please do call before you come, so I can possibly get some snacks in time. Thank you.

God be with you all,
JVarghese Achen +

Wish Every one a Happy Indian Independence Day. Independence did not come easy. A lot of people fought for it and worked hard to maintain it.

Palakkunnathu Abraham Malpan from Maramon and Kaithayil Geevarghese Malpan from Kottayam who spearheaded this movement, never wanted to start a separate Church. They wanted the reformation, staying within the Church. This group gradually became vocal and approached Col. Fraser, the British Resident, with a memorandum in 1836 . But since nothing came of it, Abraham Malpan decided to take action in his own parish of Maramon which was sympathetic towards his ideas of reform. He translated the liturgy of the Holy Qurbana into local language Malayalam from Syriac and also eliminated from it the prayers for the dead and invocation of saints etc. He celebrated Holy Qurbana in his church using the revised St.James liturgy on a Sunday in 1836. This was tantamount to firing the first shot of the reformation. He later on removed from the church the wooden image of a saint reputed to have miraculous powers, and in whose honor an annual festival was held that brought in huge income to the Parish. Both at Maramon and at the Syrian Seminary at Kottayam, and in the neighboring Parishes of Pallom and Kollad, Abraham Malpan popularized Bible teaching and preaching. Abraham Malpan and Geevarghese Malpan had to give up their service in the Seminary, in 1840. Since then Abraham Malpan concentrated his attention on the work of reform, holding Bible classes and prayer meetings and instructing the deacons who were loyal to him.

Most prominent elements in the Reformation were:

- Return to the gospel message of salvation by faith in Jesus Christ;
- Cleansing of wrong ways of life, and
- Taking up responsibility to be witnesses of Jesus Christ to other
- All importance be given to the primacy of the Word of God

Reformation Movement (Contd)

Thus the reformation movement was started. It was a return to the purity of the life and practice of the early Church. The emphasis on preaching the word of God led to revival meetings, which were led both by the clergy and laymen. The domination of the clergy as custodians of grace became a thing of the past. Emphasis was given to the sole mediation of Christ, importance of laity and priesthood of all believers. More and more groups were formed for Bible study; and conventions for preaching and hearing the Word of God became common.

Metropolitan Chepat Mar Dionysius was not prepared to accept such changes. So he refused to ordain the deacons who had undergone training with Abraham Malpan. He also excommunicated Abraham Malpan. So Abraham Malpan went to his mother-parish at Maramon. He stood strong in faith and convictions when faced with serious challenges and great difficulties. However the whole parish stood with him. Others who favoured the reforms went to hear his preaching and were strengthened by his exhortations. Some other parishes also decided to adopt the programme of reformation. Abraham Malpan realized that unless he had the support of a bishop who was sympathetic towards his reforms, there was little prospect of the movement gaining ground. of the Church.
