NEWSLETTER VOL. XLV NO. 7

Vicar's Message

Dear Parishioners,

Greetings to you in the name of Triune God. Let's thank God for all the blessings that we have received in the month of June.

May the Lord give us a beautiful summer in the coming days. On July 3rd we celebrate St. Thomas Day. We should commemorate the belief and legacy of the founder of our Malankara Mar Thoma Church, St. Thomas.

The first Sunday of July (6th July) we observe as "tithe offering" Sunday, we meditate on the theme ' the Life for the Creator'. As we experience countless blessings from God, we should be grateful to God, and we should share our resources for the spreading of the Gospel of our Creator. We should be able to spend our time, talents and wealth for the glory of our Creator.

2nd Sunday we observe as Clergy Sunday and Meditate upon Jesus: icon of ordained Ministry. May Lord bless all our clergy to be very blessed ministers in his Vineyard. On the third Sunday we meditate on the Holy Baptism: Uniting with Christ. We should be able to live with the deep conviction that all of us who have been baptized to conform with the death and resurrection of Christ. On fourth Sunday we meditate on "Training for the ministry of the kingdom of God'. For a better effect we should be trained for the ministry of the kingdom of God. We should be trained our body and mind according to the values of the kingdom of God.

I congratulate all our students who successfully completed their courses and graduated last month. May God bless their future with His abundant mercy.

Again I would like to remind that , we have to strengthen our prayer meetings in person. I remind you all to uphold the Diocesan Family Conference, which will be held from July 3 to 6, in our prayers. Our organizations jointly organizing a tour to Noah's Ark at Kentucky and some other spots, on August 19,20, & 21, 50 people can participate in it, for more details can contact Mrs. Elsy Jube (Convenor), Mr. Thankachan Geevarghese (Edavaka Mission Treasurer).

May Almighty bless us all with all His goodness.

With Prayer
Rev. John Philip

Glory be to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit
- One True God! Amen!

Dearly beloved in Christ,
Summer is upon us! And with it come beach days, family vacations, weddings, BBQs, work mixers, late night outings, lazy Sundays, and just about every kind of gathering we can think of... and let us be honest, maybe a few creative excuses, too! But in the midst of these joyful moments, we must be reminded of something deeply important:

“Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.” — St. Matthew 26:41

These words of our Lord, spoken in the Garden of Gethsemane, lead us to reflect on two simple, yet vital truths:

1. Do Not Try to Do this Alone

When Jesus said, “The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak,” He was not condemning His disciples—He was naming a reality that all of us face. Left to our own strength, we are prone to distraction, temptation, and spiritual fatigue. That is why Jesus first told them: “Watch and pray.”

We are not meant to walk this journey of faith alone. Nor does God expect us to walk this life’s journey by ourselves. Rather, He lovingly equips us with His Word, His holy sacraments, and the fellowship of the Church to help us trim away all that keeps us from Him. It’s easy to get caught up in our own plans, thinking we can manage everything. But doing so leads to exhaustion—and ultimately, failure. The Lord knows our weaknesses. What He desires is our willingness to turn to Him, to trust Him, and to lean on His strength each day.

2. Do Not Give Up

Jesus’ words also remind us that failure and weariness are part of the journey. We will stumble. The flesh will at times overpower the spirit. And in those moments, the evil one rejoices—because discouragement leads to spiritual paralysis.

But hear this, beloved: Christ’s response to our weakness is not condemnation—it is compassion. Just as He told the woman caught in sin, “Go, and sin no more,” He calls us to acknowledge, repent, confess, and keep moving forward towards Him.

The lure of comfort, complacency, and self-gratification is powerful. But with God’s grace and a spirit of persistence, we can overcome it. As we read in St. Matthew 17:21, when Jesus freed the boy possessed by evil spirits, He revealed that these battles are only won through prayer and fasting.

So, during this season of heatwaves, yes let us go to weddings, the BBQs, beach days, and family gatherings, all of it; enjoying the blessings of community and creation. But in all these moments, be called to love and celebrate differently. Be present with a heart full of joy and anchored in Christ. Let us watch and pray. Let us be comforters to those who are weary. Let us fast, meditate on God’s Word, and shift from self-centeredness to God-centeredness. In doing so, we will discover strength, joy, and deep spiritual renewal, even in the midst of this summer season. Wishing you all a great Summer, and for the days ahead.

May the grace of our Lord continue to guide us and uphold us in every season. Amen.

Yours in Christ,
JVarghese Achen

Obituary

Mrs. Mariamma Varghese (91), the mother of our former Vicar, Rev. Johnson Varghese and wife of Late Mr. A.V. Varghese, Pulickal Cottage Venmoney, passed away on June 18, 2025. Funeral services were held at Venmoney Zehion Marthoma church on June 25, 2025.

Please continue to keep all the bereaving family members in your valuable prayers. May the peace of Christ bring them comfort during this difficult time.

"The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit."

Pslalm 34:18
