Vicar's Message

Dearly Beloved in Christ & Dear St. Thomas Family,

Greetings to you all in the precious name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

As we begin another month, my heart is filled with thanksgiving to God for His abundant blessings upon our parish family. We praise Him for leading us through a wonderful Vacation Bible School and Elders Bible School. It was a joy to see children, teachers, volunteers, and our senior members learning God's Word together. I sincerely thank everyone who prayed, planned, served, and participated in making these ministries a great blessing.

We also thank God for the Youth Retreat held at Sandy Cove, Maryland. It was a meaningful time of worship, fellowship, and spiritual renewal. I pray that our young people will continue to grow in their faith and become faithful witnesses of Christ wherever they are.

August will be another exciting month in the life of our church. Our Junior and Senior Conference will be held from August 6–9, followed by the Diocese Yuvajana Sakhyam Conference from August 14–16. Let us uphold all the participants and leaders in our prayers.

Our parish family will also gather for our annual Picnic on August 15 at Saxon Woods Park. I encourage everyone to join this time of fellowship and togetherness. Later in the month, we will travel to Lancaster on August 27 to watch the inspiring production of Joshua. May these occasions strengthen our fellowship and faith.

As India celebrates its Independence Day this month, let us thank God for our beloved homeland and continue to pray for its peace, unity, and progress. We also remember that Mission Sunday will be observed on August 2, reminding us of Christ's call to proclaim the Gospel to all nations. On August 16, we will observe Reformation Sunday, giving thanks for God's renewing work in His Church and recommitting ourselves to His Word.

On a personal note, I thank God for His faithfulness throughout the past 12 years of ordained ministry. Every step has been guided by His grace, and I remain grateful for the privilege of serving His people. Thank you for your prayers, encouragement, and love. I humbly ask you to continue praying for me and my family as we seek to serve the Lord faithfully.

Finally, our world continues to face conflict, violence, and uncertainty. As followers of Jesus Christ, let us be people who pray for peace, work for reconciliation, and become instruments of God's love. May the Prince of Peace rule in our hearts, our families, our church, and among all nations.

May the Lord bless you and your families with His grace, strength, and peace throughout this month.

In Christ's service,
Jubin Achen

Youth Chaplain's Corner

Glory be to the Father, to the Son, and the Holy Spirit, one true God. Amen.

Dearly Beloved,

In Luke 10:1–12, Jesus sends seventy disciples ahead of Him into the towns and villages He was preparing to visit. Their mission was simple but important: to prepare the way for Christ and to proclaim that the Kingdom of God had come near.

What stands out in this passage is that Jesus does not send only the twelve disciples. He calls seventy others and sends them out in pairs. This reminds us that Christian mission is not limited to clergy, leaders, or a select group of people. It is the shared responsibility of the whole Church. Each of us has a place in God's work, and each of us is called to make the love of Christ visible through our words, actions, and service. Jesus tells them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few." The need around us remains great. There are people who are lonely, discouraged, burdened, and searching for hope. There are young people who need encouragement, families who need prayer, and communities that need to experience the compassion of Christ. The harvest is plentiful, and God continues to call willing hearts to participate in His mission.

At the same time, Jesus says, "I am sending you out like lambs among wolves." He does not promise that the mission will always be easy or comfortable. The disciples may face rejection, hostility, and disappointment. Yet they are not sent with force, anger, or worldly power. They are sent as lambs—with humility, gentleness, courage, and complete dependence upon God.

This is the spirit in which the Church must continue its mission. We are not called to respond to hostility with hostility or to overcome others through power. We are called to remain faithful, compassionate, and courageous, trusting that the Good Shepherd is always with us. God willing, in the holiday months, parishes will once again take part in mission outreach projects. I sincerely hope that our young adults, teens, and children will lead these projects, as they have an abundance of talents and the best of intentions. We must

....Continued from Page 5 remember these opportunities are more than programs or activities. They allow us to serve together, grow in faith, and become instruments of God's love in the lives of others. As we prepare, may we ask ourselves: Are we willing to take part in God's mission? Are we ready to serve even when it requires sacrifice? Are we willing to trust God when we feel unprepared or uncertain? May the Lord give us willing hearts, compassionate hands, and the courage to go wherever He sends us.

God be with you all,

J. Varghese Achen
