NEWSLETTER VOL. XLV NO. 9

Vicar's Message

Dear Parishioners,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ. Let's thank God for the blessed month of August. Let's welcome September - the month of Fall. I appreciate all who attended our parish and organizations picnics held on the 16th and 30th, especially to all the hard-working conveners.

We observe the first Sunday as Education Day. After a wonderful vacation, it's time for our kids to go to school as they begin their new Academic year. Many of our children have left their homes and gone to distant colleges. Let's pray that our children will grow in God's faith and God's knowledge while gaining worldly knowledge. It's also a time to remember those kids who are not able to receive good education due to various circumstances. As we begin our new Academic year of Sunday school too, I request and encourage all parents to prepare their kids to attend Sunday School regularly.

Along with the nation we celebrate this September 2nd as Labor day, the Federal holiday celebrates the immense contribution of workers in the US, who help in the nation's progress and development. Everyone is invited to attend and participate in the BBQ program organized by our Youth Fellowship on that day. We pray that our youth will be able to work towards the progress of our society and community.

The second week is observed as Sevika Sanghom week, the theme is ' Woman: Proclaimers and Practitioners of change Let all women in the family, in the church, in the workplace, and in the society be a model. May God help all the programs organized by our Sevika Sanghom to be a blessing to others.

Let's glorify God for our Senior Citizens Fellowship. We observe the third Sunday as Senior Citizen Day, this year we meditate upon the theme Senior Citizens: models of God's righteousness. May the experience and wisdom of Senior Citizens be an asset to the next generation.

Our annual parish convention will be held from September 18th to 21st, 2025 at .Rev. Dr. KA Abraham and Mr. Joy Pullad, will be the main speakers. I humbly request your sincere prayers and participation for the same. Fifth Sunday we meditate upon, Stewardship: faithfulness and transparency.

A gentle reminder, that all our area prayer groups meet regularly, and try to meet in person as much as possible. I request your attention and prayerful participation in the RAC Convention to be held on the 26th, 27th, and 28th in various parishes in our region.

Wishing all the kids a blessed school year. Let me appreciate all those who worked hard behind our VBS and all those kids who have participated in it, and let me appreciate all those who have attended in the Sunday school and youth Fellowship conferences at Atlanta and in St John's University in Long Island. May the Lord bless us all.

With Prayers and Love,
Rev. John Philip

Youth Chaplain's Corner

Glory be to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit
- One True God! Amen.

Dearly Beloved in Christ,

In Philippians 1:9–10, we read, “And this is my prayer: that your love may overflow more and more with knowledge and full insight to help you determine what is best...”

The Apostle Paul, writing from a prison cell, opens his letter to the Philippians not with complaints or self-pity, but with a prayer—gentle, pastoral, and full of affection. Though isolated and suffering, his heart remains with his people. His greatest concern is not his own hardship, but their spiritual growth. This is the mark of a true shepherd: one who intercedes on behalf of his flock even in the midst of his own trials.

In this short prayer, Paul lifts up three desires—each of which continues to guide us in our walk with Christ today.

First, Paul prays that Church love may abound more and more. This is not sentimental or shallow love, but a love shaped by deeper knowledge of Christ and rooted in life within His body, the Church. Christian love is never stagnant. It must grow—expanding in compassion, deepening in wisdom, and maturing in self-giving action. It is a love that serves, sacrifices, and endures. As we reflect on our own lives, we must ask: Is our love growing colder in a distracted world, or is it becoming more Christ-like with each passing day?

Second, Paul desires that the Church grow in discernment and learn to choose what is excellent. It is not enough to settle for what is merely permissible or culturally acceptable. The Christian life invites us into something more: a pursuit of what is best in the eyes of God. Discernment is the ability to recognize the difference between what is simply good and what is holy. When love is rightly formed, it does not blur our vision—it sharpens it. It helps us prioritize with clarity and live with purpose, longing above all to please God.

Third, Paul prays that we would live sincere lives. The Greek word translated as “sincere” refers to something tested by sunlight—examined openly, free from hidden cracks or deceit. Paul is not calling for perfection, but for authenticity. This is hard. He urges us to cultivate a life that is honest, transparent, and whole. A faith that can be held up to the light and not be found wanting. This leads us to ask ourselves: Are we walking in the truth of God’s presence, or merely maintaining the appearance of faith?

Paul’s prayer is not bound to the first-century church in Philippi. It speaks with just as much power to us today. May our lives overflow with love that is active and wise. May our decisions be guided by holy discernment. And may our faith be sincere, reflecting the truth and beauty of the gospel.

Let us seek what is excellent. Let us reflect Christ in all that we do. And let us walk blamelessly in the light of His grace.

Yours in Christ,
JVarghese Achen
